Creativity, Incentive and Reward

AN ECONOMIC ANALYSIS OF COPYRIGHT AND CULTURE IN THE INFORMATION AGE

Ruth Towse, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands

'This is an important work on compensation of the artist and the incentives for artistic activity. The explosive evolution of the technology of communications raises particularly pressing issues in this arena and poses new threats to remuneration of the artist. The discussion of copyright in this book provides vital information for analysis of this issue. The book is informative, intelligent and well written – precisely what is needed for understanding of its subject.'

– William J. Baumol, New York University, USA
